

RCIA Sponsor – Godparent Certification Form

Dear Sponsor or Godparent,

The Church thanks you for your lifelong commitment to your catechumen or candidate. Being called to be a Sponsor or Godparent is not merely a choice because of family ties or a reward of friendship. The call to be a sponsor bears the responsibility of giving spiritual witness to your catechumen or candidate, your soon to be godchild, of how to live out the Catholic faith in everyday life. By being faithful to God's law, being active in the life of your parish, participating in Mass weekly, and living Gospel values, you offer tremendous personal support in their faith lives.

The laws of the Church require the following of a valid sponsor (godparent):

- Must be mature enough to undertake this role, at least 16 years of age
- Must be fully initiated, having received the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist
- Must be a member of the Catholic Church, canonically free to carry out this office [This would indicate that Catholics living in an invalid marriage (not according to Church regulations) and those cohabitating (living together without marriage) are ineligible]
- Must know the fundamental truths of the faith, be a practicing Catholic who attends Sunday Mass and receives the sacraments regularly, and sees to the religious instruction in his/her family
- Must not be the mother, father, spouse or future spouse of the one being baptized or confirmed (in cases where candidate has already been baptised, a spouse or fiance may be the sponsor)

Therefore, it is important that you prayerfully consider the serious responsibility which you take on as godparent. The Church thanks you for your witness to the faith and for living these Catholic ideals.

I, _____ of _____ Church accept
(Print godparent/sponsor name) (Name of Church)
the invitation to be godparent/sponsor to _____ for the sacraments of baptism and/or confirmation.

I affirm that I am a baptized and confirmed Catholic, living my Catholic faith and in good standing with the Catholic Church. I understand that I am called to serve as a companion, guide, and role model to my godchild, especially by my own example.
